

Removing laws that make monopolies illegal is extremely unpatriotic and un-American. We have sent courageous men and women to Iraq to support the freedoms of our country, our Constitution and our Bill of Rights. Allowing for monopolies just means squashing the American dream, the same one that our soldiers have fought and died for, and allowing for the Sovietization of America through propaganda-spewing media all owned by the same company.